Lesson Test

Unit 18, Lesson 1: Reading

Task 7: Listening Comprehension Read the story. Then answer the questions. Circle the correct answers.

Michael read a science fiction novel about a big fish named Oscar that lived in a lake. In the story, many people had tried to catch Oscar but couldn't because he was very fast. Finally, some scientists caught him using artificial insects. The book was scary. It wasn't a comedy, but sometimes it was funny. In the end, the story made Michael sad because Oscar was caught.

Michael thought about what it might be like to catch a fish. There was a fishing shop at the river near his house. An old man showed Michael some flies he used to catch fish. Then he said to Michael, "You might try using this artificial insect. It's what they used to catch Oscar."

Michael was surprised. "I thought that was just a scary novel," he said to the old man.

"No," said the old man, with a smile, "it happened right here. It was real."

1. Why did Michael want to go fishing?
 - A. He wanted to see the famous fish named Oscar.
 - B. He wanted to try using artificial insects.
 - C. He read a novel about catching a big fish.
 - D. He was asked to go by his old friend Oscar.
2. What kind of story did Michael read?
 - A. a story with a sad ending
 - B. a scary novel with a funny ending
 - C. a comedy with a happy ending
 - D. a science fiction book with a funny ending
3. Why did the old man want Michael to use artificial insects?
 - A. They were like science fiction.
 - B. They were used to catch a big fish.
 - C. They were all he had for sale in his shop.
 - D. They were less expensive than flies used for fishing.
